The Response and Terminal Disclaimers filed 04 February 2005 have been entered. After further review and consideration it has been determined that the following new grounds of rejection is required in view of the newly discovered reference.

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Cho et al US 5,962,019. See claims 1-14, Formulations 100-103, 105 and 106. The reference shows a hard gelatin capsule comprised of cyclosporine A, a poloxyethylene-sorbitan-fatty acid ester (Tween 80), that has an HLB of 15. The capsule further comprises ethanol and polyethylene glycol. While the cited formulations comprise 12.5 % ethanol, the reference discloses amounts of at least about 1 % or 3 %. Column 3, lines 39-68. See also Formulations 35 and 45 that comprise 10 % ethanol. Thickening agents and other excipients including propylene glycol are shown in column 5, lines 27-38, Formulations 35 and 45, column 10, lines 30-33. The scope of applicants' claims clearly read on the prior art of record.

Claims 1-11 are rejected.
